WEISBACH

Every Householder should ask to see this burner, not only because of its beautiful design, but - - - -

Because Inverted Incandescent Gas Light under the Welsbach system is far superior to and cheaper than electricity Because it is the ideal light for the home. All the light spreads downwards, where it is wanted, leaving the ceilings softly shaded.

Because it is fitted with Welsbach Gas and Air Regulators, which do away with inequalities of gas pressures, and give a steady light.

Because this new burner is guaranteed to be satisfactory in use, and to give more light at less cost than any other inverted burner,—70 candle power for less than 3 feet of gas per hour.

For full particulars, apply to the Sole Agents for the Welsbach Incandescent Gas

Working in England.

ANTI-OPIUMISTS.

(From Our Correspondent.) LONDON, March 6. Mr Robert Laidlaw M.P. continues to circulate among his Scottish constituents, telling them that the Chinese are working zeal usly for the suppression of the opium traffic, and England must help her. - Mr Theodore Taylor, M. P. however, is more that takes a special interest in the severance of the British connection with the opium trade he let himself-go in fine style. There were two resolutions before the meeting, one calling on the government to undertake speedler means of restricting opium growing in India and the other praying that means might be taken to immediately end the opium traffic in the Crown Colonies and the Federated Malay States. Lord Kinnaird, who presided, was as mild as usual and rejoiced at the news that the Future. Indian government was about to reduce the export of opinin by 5,000 chests anmustly for the next three years. Mr Tayfor then gave the principal speech, in which he said that the Chinese, high and low, were united in considering opium a curse, while there remained many Europeans, and some Englishmen who still held that it was a blessing, the one source of consolation a Chinaman had He contended that the "blackest opium Thotal at considerable expense. The international settlement it appeared received about $10,000 per anomu for the licensing of the lepium traffic. Passing to the Federated Malay States, Mr Taylor

asked how the Chinese were to regard but half the revenue was got by farming out the opinin traffic. If the Chinese were slow in reforming what about the British with the drink traffic at home?

Caina he believed to be sincere, and he quoted a statement made to him by Sir

Robert Hart-"1 believe the Chinese Government is in earnest. But the reformers at home must have patience with her. It is a case of putting new wine into old bottles and the wine will break the bottles if it be too heavy." Mr Taylor

Dr Maxwell and the Rev. J. Scott Lidgett spoke in favour of the resolutions, even though the suppression of the trade entailed pecuniary losses. Sir Heary

Cotton pointed out that too much stress was laid on the loss that the Indian Government would sustain by the abolition of the traffic. He also contended that it should be known that in the Federated Malay States £68 per chest of opinin was paid, while China's duty, which she could not change, was £16-10. Mr Ramsay

Macdonald beat all the speakers hollow

"unbounded hypocrisy of England" and appealed for "a new chapter in the disgraceful history of our treatment of China." The Rev. F. B. Meyer said be

INDIA'S CURSE.

DISCONTENT with existing political conditions is generally due to physical disadvantages. Indeed it has been said men and carried away two of them. The that no revolution ever succeeded except when the revolutionaries were hungry. The reason for this is clear. As a poet has expressed it . "Where there's little left to hope there's little left to dread." The man who is constantly ledge of the Chinese authorites, was closed face to face with death from starvation naturally cares little if he is drawn into a position in which he is likely to be specifily released from either hope or fear. Thus the wielders of the bomb, the resolver, or the clagger have their genesis. HONGKONG SANITARY BOARD.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH ORDINANCE. The question of the Public Health Ordinance Amending Bill was again partly discussed at meeting of the Sanitary Board yesterday afternoon. The President Dr Ho Kai: Certainty. I can call the the Hon. Dr J. M. Atkinson, presided and there were present the Hon. Mr Irvine, Lieut. Col. Martin, Mr A. Shelton Hooper, Mr H. Humphreys, Mr H. A. W. Slade, Dr Ho Kai; He treated him for Mr Lau Chu-pak and Dr W. W. Pearse, (Medical Officer of Health) and Mr J. Mc I. Messer (ecretary).

The President said that with regard to the Bill and Mr Lan Chu-pak's minute thereon a letter had been forwarded to the Government informing them of what the Ambassador in Washington, that America, His Worship: This child had some Board had approved and disapproved, and stating that consideration of the sections not referred to had been postponed. CONVENIENCES AT KOWLOON. The Committee appointed to consider the question of permitting water-closets in buildings at Kowloon reported that they were of the apinion that the objections which had been raised were insufficient to justify the refusal to allow such "conveniences in the case of European houses with in the area mentioned, namely, between Kowlo n Point and Gascoigne Road. They recommended that a systematic inspection be made once a month. The President said that it was necessary for the Board to come to some decision as to whether water closets are to be allowed at Kowloon or not. If we allow them at Kowloon it follows that we must do so at Victoria in the European houses. The does not show there would be much harm to the public health if they were allowed. The tides at Kowloon point are sufficent to carry away any sewage. We ought to hesitate before agreeing to the principal of water closets for European houses throughout the Colony. 'The Harbour Master, when asked, has given it, that in his oninion, the foreshore off Wanchai Sir-New is the opportunity to keep the fouler than it was fifteen years ago, the Typhoon Shelter to the front. On the other hand there auyone likes to have them, I personally, cannot see why they should not. As t the fouling of the foreshore I should like muil boats, sampans, and that from water closets. Not one ten-thousand part would be due to water closets. Foreshores always smell at low tides and I have been to places in England where there is no sowerage, and yet a most offensive smell came from the foreshore at low tide. AN INDIAN ON INDIA.

Not litted For Self-rule.

Mr Jwala Dass writes in "The Hindustan Review " (Allahabad) thus :

"We have as yet to learn to respect the pinion of the majority, and it is an anomal y to me how the people who can not bear t be outvoted in an assembly like the Congress (where all the offices are honorary) can hope to govern the cauntry by a party system, when the party in power is bound to have such patronage at its command That self-government should be the idea' for all patriotic Indians no one will gain ay, but the lessons of past history should not be lost upon us. The ideal may be kept in view in striving for all political reform."

The caste system in India is fatal, he declares, to the development of genuine political freedom and practical government, and a community that treats the lower classes as they are treated in India " can have no true instinct of liberty and selfrespect." He says in the most downright Cargo by her are hereby informed that way that no party which " turns a deaf ear Goods are being landed at to the claims of the lower castes and denies them the mere attributes of human beings" ought to expect " an alien government to listen to their grievances." He severely and delivery can be obtained as soon as the charges the people of Hindustan with moral and social degradation, such as unfits Calves Head & Feet-Ngan-chal-tau-kak, set $1.00 them for political freedom, and remarks:

"It is the moral some of the people than has to be clevated. The average Indian is a selfish creature at heart. The centuries of alien dominance have made him what he He has no love for his country, and patriotism is a vague torm to him. He can not understand why he should subordinate his own interests to those of his country. Therefore he should be taught the virtue of self-abnegation, of merging the individual into the community. He is a stranger to the virtues of teleration and catholicity."

CUTICURA COMPLETELY CURED THE DISEASE

"Six years ago this summer I caught a chill through bathing while in a state of perspiration and for nearly five and a half years my back, chest, and legs were in a constant state of irritation, constant in the ming of every year. especially in the spring of every year.

I have consulted several specialists and tried various other remedies to may avail until I tried Cuticum Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I have used them only about six months and now my skin all over my hody is as fair as the Prince of the Asturias. I shall certainly not fall to recommend the Cuticura Remedes for all skin diseasus.
